MAGAL RECEIVES $4.4 MILLION IN ORDERS FOR SECURING CRITICAL SITES

YAHUD, Israel – Nov. 26, 2012 -- Magal Security Systems, Ltd. (NASDAQ GM: MAGS) announced today that it has recently received orders amounting to $4.4 million. Of these orders, $2 million originated in Latin America and are to secure the perimeters of prisons and police stations. The remainder are to secure nuclear power-plants in the Far-East and conventional power plants in Israel.

Eitan Livneh, President and CEO of Magal S³, commented: “We see continued investment in the securing of critical sites in the Far East and Latin America, which balance the currently relative weaker markets in Europe and the US. Most of the orders were achieved through long term customer relationships and our strong reputation in our addressable markets.”
