Magal Receives A Three Year Maintenance Contract For $7.8 Million

YAHUD, Israel – Feb. 12th, 2013 -- Magal Security Systems, Ltd. (NASDAQ GM: MAGS) today announced that it has received a service order to maintain homeland security (HLS) infrastructure in Israel. The contract is valued at US$ 7.8 million, which covers three years of maintenance and support.

Eitan Livneh, President and CEO of Magal S³, commented, “Long term maintenance agreements such as this, enable us to better plan our resources and improve efficiency. It also provides our customers with a high level of confidence that their systems will remain in top condition and working order throughout the life of the contract. This contract is a strong sign of confidence in our technical skills and abilities from a domestic customer.”
