MAGAL RECEIVES $4.5 MILLION IN ORDERS

YAHUD, Israel – Oct. 1st, 2013 -- Magal Security Systems, Ltd. (NASDAQ GM: MAGS) announced today that it recently received two orders from the Asia and Africa region, amounting to $4.5 million.

The first order is for securing the perimeter of a sensitive government related site.

The second order is for providing added security and intelligence for a border.

Eitan Livneh, President and CEO of Magal S³, commented: "We are proud to have received these two orders from new customers that confirm the potential for growth in the security realm in Magal's target regions. Both orders leverage Magal's extensive experience in securing sensitive areas and expand Magal's customer base. We are hopeful that they will lead to further business in future."
