MAGAL RECEIVES $1.5 MILLION ORDER FOR SECURING OIL & GAS FACILITY IN COLOMBIA

YAHUD, Israel – Nov. 13th, 2013 -- Magal Security Systems, Ltd. (NASDAQ GM: MAGS) announced today that it recently received a $1.5 million order for securing a critical oil and gas site in Colombia.

The order is for the build, commissioning and support of a full security solution for a Colombian onshore oil and gas facility. It includes cameras, access control, communication and a Command and Control application. Magal has been contracted to provide services for an initial 15 month period with potential to extend the service beyond this timeframe.

Eitan Livneh, President and CEO of Magal S³, commented: “We are encouraged by this new order coming from recently established operations in Colombia. It validates our strategy of having a local presence in our targeted regions, where we intend to deliver solutions and execute projects.”
