

PRESS RELEASE

MAGAL AWARDED $8 MILLION CONTRACT FOR INTEGRATED SECURITY SOLUTIONS FOR CRITICAL ENERGY INFRASTRUCTURE

YEHUD, Israel – November 20, 2017 -- Magal Security Systems, Ltd. (NASDAQ: MAGS) announced that it recently signed a $8 million contract to provide integrated security solutions for several critical energy infrastructure sites. Magal's delivery and installation will take place over the coming months.

Saar Koursh, CEO of Magal, commented: "We are proud to have been selected by this important national operator to protect these critical energy infrastructure sites. It reconfirms the value that our customers find in Magal's unique offering. The order includes our video management system with video analytics, as well as our FiberPatrol, a fiber-optic point reporting intrusion detection system. It also includes our cyber security solution, all integrated to and managed by our cutting-edge Fortis4G physical security information management system (PSIM). Our proven engineering and integration capabilities, combined with our broad portfolio of home-grown security solutions enables us to win these tightly scheduled- and technically challenging projects. We look forward to receiving further orders such as this in the future."
